

them to 34. The last group of British soldiers left the colonies in 1783. In 1789, he was 35 as the first president of the United States.

21. A. taken B. covered C. acted D. named
22. A. led B. pushed C. separated D. followed
23. A. passed B. advised C. helped D. showed
24. A. thing B. battles C. century D. years
25. A. ways B. places C. gardens D. stations
26. A. seen B. developed C. shared D. realized
27. A. missed B. escaped C. attended D. changed
28. A. knew B. became C. met D. caught
29. A. Therefore B. Otherwise C. Besides D. However
30. A. ruled B. defeated C. destroyed D. attacked
31. A. declared B. spread C. started D. broke
32. A. fully B. poorly C. specially D. suitably
33. A. almost B. still C. really D. hardly
34. A. trouble B. victory C. failure D. pleasure
35. A. recognized B. armed C. chosen D. called

四、阅读理解 (共 15 小题; 每题 3 分, 共 45 分。)

阅读下列短文, 然后根据短文的内容从每小题的四个选择项中选出最佳的一项。

A

Effective teamwork is key to the success of a business. Teamwork helps tasks get completed quickly and efficiently (高效地). However, poor teamwork can hinder a business' success and make operations much more difficult. Four parts of teamwork can make it effective and lead to business success.

Effective Communication (沟通)

Without effective communication, a team will be weak. When a team has open and honest communication, a lot more will be achieved. Communication makes sure that everyone listens to one another's ideas and will help them express their thoughts and feelings. Good communication also helps put together a clear plan of action.

Different Skills

The way the team is made up of plays a major role in how well the group works as a team. It is